

http://www.rollingstone.com/music/videos/flashback-buffalo-springfield-reunite-at-the-2010-bridge-school-benefit-20130625?utm_source=dailynewsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=newsletter

I have always loved the music and the musicians of Buffalo Springfield, which disbanded in 1968 after a great but short two years. They are in the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, and they were a farm club for other great groups—notably CSNY (and its own incarnations) and Neil Young, and the living members actually got together recently for a fundraiser for the CA school that NY and his wife run, for their son and other special needs kids. Watch this performance from their original version, and listen to them today. There is also a short RS story. They have talked for some time about a reunion tour; you know I will be there if they come anywhere near me.

Happy summer to my Posse, from hot but dry Santa Fe, NM,

Michael